STONE * LEADERSHIP * SCHOOL

Equipping Leaders. Awakening Callings. Advancing the Kingdom

Do you want to grow personally in your knowledge and understanding of God, while at the same time learn vital leadership skills and receiving hands-on training that will equip you to succeed no matter what God is calling you?

Whether you want to serve behind the scenes in ministry or take on a lead role, our internship program is custom-designed to help you get there with excellence!

What You Can Expect

Stone Leadership School is not just about gaining knowledge; it's about transformational experiences that shape your character, deepen your faith, and develop your leadership potential. Throughout the program, you'll be immersed in a variety of powerful learning environments and ministry settings:

- Learn what it means to pursue God through prayer, the Word, studies, serving and in your personal life.
- Receive valuable leadership training, teamwork experience and skills development.
- Pursue opportunities to serve within the church while being developed by experienced team leaders.
- Expand your knowledge and capabilities while learning practical life development tools for personal planning and growth as well as ministry involvement.
- Benefit from unique opportunities to be spoken into by pastors, seasoned ministry leaders, business professionals and community leaders within and outside of our local community/valley.
- Broaden your knowledge and skills through book studies, group discussions, online resources and staff presentations and training modules.
- Join our team on trips to connect with other ministries and explore new serving opportunities. You'll also have the chance to visit other churches, learn from their ministry models, and attend conferences designed to inspire and equip you.
- Be part of a life-changing missions experience where you'll put your faith and leadership into action beyond our local community.
